

● When it comes to negotiating frequency transactions, our philosophy at Performance Industries is very simple. We find you the right buyer and get you top market value or there's no deal—and no expense to you. By completely managing the assignment and closing processes, we provide follow-through service that leads to settlement in the most timely manner.

Results can be verified.

If you're considering buying or selling frequencies or towers, Performance Industries should be your next call. Contact us today by phone or E-mail.
